Afterword

Special thanks to Marimura (producer) and Kiboguchi Nachi (Designer)

Thank you for all the support, I sincerely hope you enjoyed reading this book.
Also, thanks to all the people who helped out with "Gochuumon wa Usagi desu ka?".

I wanted to capture the feelings of an old-fashioned town and its cafes.
I was inspired by Strasbourg, Colmar's architecture, Hungary's hot springs, and many other places.
Whether in between studying, or work, or at tea time, I hope reading this gives you a bit of happiness.

Well then, until the next time we meet...
